

"Family Values" | OSEU 4: Kinship & Harmony

Compelling Question	What are family values/traditions and how do they influence you?
Standards and Practices	4.H.2.2 Examine basic environmental, economic cultural, and population issues of concern to South Dakota. OSEU 4.1 Compare and contrast the traditional Oceti Sakowin family structure to contemporary family structures. OSEU 4.2 Describe the traditional behavior patterns, codes of respect and values promoted within the Oceti Sakowin.
Staging the Question	How does your family influence what you do and who you become? Why does society need rules?
Supporting Question 1	Supporting Question 2	Supporting Question 3
What are some of your family traditions?	In what way does family traditions influence who you are?	What are some potential problems you might face as you try to live by your family values?
Formative Performance Task	Formative Performance Task	Formative Performance Task
Discuss with your parents, grandparents, aunties, uncles, brothers and sisters to get a good understanding of why your family is the way it is.	Search within yourself to determine what things you learned as a child that made you the person you are today.	Class discussion on problems we face as we try to be a better person in today's world.
Featured Sources	Featured Sources	Featured Sources
Paul Goble book - All Our Relatives: Traditional Native American Thoughts About Nature	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MHbXk63wMTI&list=PLs8d38Q6863vSqAlSTUS-UVP1eHw5bkmu https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6mS-B3G1TC8	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o29NO-UyUXk&list=PLs8d38Q6863tzy1ypojw https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GL0Inei5LiWtS&index=18
Summative Performance Task	Argument	Compare your family to a classmates.
	Extension	Create a poster that compares your family to a classmates.
Taking Informed Action	Compare and contrast you family values to the PRIDE rules at school.	