

"Principles" | OSEU 7: Way of Life & Development

Compelling Question	What principles should we live by today?
Standards and Practices	4.E.5.1 Describe how the economic needs of South Dakotans and people of other regions of the US have been met. OSEU 7.2 Examine and describe actions taken by the Oceti Sakowin individuals and communities that bring about social change.
Staging the Question	How does the availability of goods and services effect what we do?
Supporting Question 1	Supporting Question 2	Supporting Question 3
What are the needs of citizens?	How have the rights of citizens changed through time?	What are the consequences of being a good citizen?
Formative Performance Task	Formative Performance Task	Formative Performance Task
Students will identify the basic needs of people.	Students will examine how the needs of people are different now then in the past.	Explore the events that happened in history that impacted the social needs of people. Answer the question: what makes us who we are?
Featured Sources	Featured Sources	Featured Sources
https://simplypsychology.org/maslow.html Paul Goble book : The Return of the Buffaloes: A Plains Indian Story about Famine and Renewal of the Earth	Sd4history.com Dakotapathways.org http://www.wolakotaproject.org/	Sd4history.com Dakotapathways.org http://www.wolakotaproject.org/
Summative Performance Task	Argument	Divide the class into 2 groups and have them debate about which life was better, now or in the past.
	Extension	Write a paragraph defending your side.
Taking Informed Action	Interview community elders about life when they were young. Prepare a presentation for the class comparing and contrasting your lives.	